9. The SLOC 31-4.03 prohibits a license or renewal from being issued if the applicant or the business has incurred delinquent financial obligations owed to the Tribe or a Tribal Enterprise that arises from activities related to the business for which a license, or a license renewal is sought. If the applicant or the business has not incurred delinquent financial obligations to the Tribe or a Tribal Enterprise that arises from activities related to the business, please complete the following:

I _____ hereby swear, under penalty of perjury under the laws of the Spokane Tribe of Indians, that neither I nor the business for which this application is sought has any delinquent, outstanding indebtedness owed to the Tribe or a Tribal Enterprise.

If either the applicant or the business has incurred delinquent financial obligations owed to the Tribe or a Tribal Enterprise, and the outstanding, delinquent debt cannot be paid, you may request to meet with the Director and propose a repayment plan. The Director, in its sole discretion, may approve a repayment plan as a condition of the business license. SLOC 31-5.07(b).
